The owls set perched in their tree high above the predator below them. They would sit in the tree until it was safe to leave.

10

The apple harvest was productive this year, with plenty of apples available to use for eating, baking apple pies, and drinking apple cider.

11

Even though Jeff enjoyed watching the Thanksgiving Day Parade, he yearned for it to be over since that meant Thanksgiving Football Games would be on next! He couldn't wait.

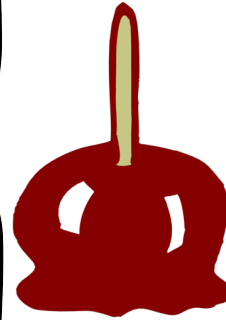

12

The vibrant colors of the fall leaves and sunflowers brighten up the otherwise dark landscape. The colorful leaves are a symbol of autumn time.

13

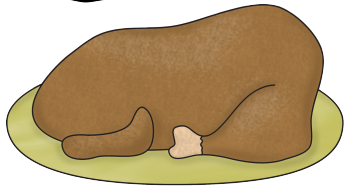

The bright reds, yellows, and oranges of the leaves are a contrast to the dark brown grass and bark of the trees. The colors are so different, yet beautiful.

14

The caramel apple was laborious to eat, requiring a lot of effort. The caramel was sticky, and the apple was hard to bite through. It took a lot of work to eat the apple!

15

The immense weight of the turkey caused it to be undercooked when it was removed from the oven. Mom hadn't realized it weighed SO much when she had put it in to cook!

16

Shane feverishly raked the leaves from his neighbor's yard. He had been paid to clear the leaves, but he had to be done in the next 5 minutes or he wouldn't be paid. He had to rake quickly!
